

FREE! NWS Skywarn Training

Tuesday May 23, 2017, 6-8pm
MN Veterans Home, Silver Bay, MN

Skywarn is a FREE presentation for the public, elected officials, wilderness trip leaders, and emergency responders about how to spot, prepare for, and respond to dangerous weather such as severe thunderstorms and tornados. Skywarn also encourages people to watch the sky and call in reports of dangerous weather to the NWS in Duluth, in order to help them alert others. This program will be presented by a National Weather Service meteorologist from Duluth, MN.
