DEFINITIONS

RISK CATEGORIES

High-Risk (Level 3) – Any food & beverage service establishment that:

- Serves potentially hazardous foods that require extensive processing on the premises, including manual handling, cooling, reheating, or holding for service.
- Prepares foods several hours or days before service.
- Serves menu items that epidemiologic experience has demonstrated to be common vehicles of foodborne illness.

Examples: food service establishments that cool or thaw any food product, food establishments that have hot holding of food (i.e. soups, meat, side dishes), food service establishments with a salad bar, fast food restaurants, large full-service restaurants.

Medium-Risk (Level 2) - A food and beverage establishment that:

- Serves potentially hazardous foods but with minimal holding between prep and service.
- Serves foods, such as pizza, that require extensive handling followed by heat treatment.

Examples: beverage service establishments that serve only frozen pizzas made to order, lodging establishments with continental breakfasts that do not have hot-holding items such as eggs or breakfast meats.

Low-Risk (Level 1) - A food and beverage service establishment that is not a high-risk or medium risk establishment.

Examples: coffee shops with pre-packaged foods only.

Food Catering – Food establishment that prepares food under contract in support of an event with a predetermined guest list such as a reception, party, luncheon, conference, ceremony or trade show. A food establishment doing catering is responsible for maintaining control of food and ensuring the safety of the food from preparation to service to the consumer.

Mobile Food Unit - A fully-equipped food/beverage service that is vehicle-mounted and readily movable without disassembling. Operation is limited to 21 days annually at any one location.

Seasonal Temporary Stand – Food and beverage service establishment that is a food stand which is disassembled and moved from location to location, but which operates no more than 21 days annually at any one location.

Seasonal Permanent Stand – Food and beverage service establishment which is a permanent food service stand or building, but which operates no more than 21 days annually.

LODGING CATEGORIES

Bed and Breakfast – shall mean a lodging establishment that is located within an owner-occupied home or resident-managed home. Rooms are rented on a nightly basis. A continental to full-scale breakfast is served. If the establishment serves 10 or fewer persons, then domestic equipment is allowed. If there are 11 or more persons, then all provisions of commercial equipment meeting the standards of NSF International apply.

Boarding/Lodging House – shall mean every building or structure or enclosure, or any part thereof, used as, maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to be an enclosure where meals or lunches are furnished to five or more regular boarders, with sleeping accommodations, for periods of one week or more.

Hotel-Motel – shall mean a building, structure or enclosure, or any part thereof, kept, used as, maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to the public to be an enclosure where sleeping accommodations are furnished to the public and furnishing accommodations for periods of less than one week.

Lodging establishment – shall mean a hotel/motel, lodging/boarding house, resort, bed and breakfast, vacation rental home, bunkhouse, or similar facility where sleeping facilities are offered to the public.

Lodging per Unit – the number of bedrooms or sleeping rooms of a cottage, cabin, hotel, motel, resort, or other lodging establishment, or the number of beds in a dormitory. Futons, daybeds or pull-out couches in any enclosed room count as a sleeping room even if they are not advertised as such.

Vacation rental home – Any home, cabin, condominium or similar building represented to the public as a place where sleeping accommodations are furnished to the public on a nightly, weekly and for less than thirty-days basis for compensation and is not a bed and breakfast, resort, hotel or motel.

Youth Camp - A parcel or parcels of land with permanent buildings, tents or other structures together with appurtenances thereon, established or maintained as living quarters where both food and lodging or the facilities therefore are provided for ten or more people, operated continuously for a period of five days or more each year for educational, recreational or vacation purposes, and the use of the camps if offered to a minor free of charge or for payment of a fee.

Resort – shall mean any building, structure, enclosure, or any part thereof, located on, or on property neighboring any lake, stream, skiing or hunting area for purposes of providing convenient access thereto, kept, used, maintained or advertised as, or held out to the public to be an enclosure where sleeping accommodations are furnished to the public and primarily to those seeking recreation, for periods of one day, one week or longer, and having for rent five or more cottages, rooms or enclosures.
